Lodge Notes and Fraternal Interests

State Officers at American Mechanics Ladies' Night—Fraternal Whist Well Patronized—Deputy Visited Arcadians—Falmey Men Had Turkey Supper—Thames Neopians Plan Children's Night.

ODD FELLOWS.

Falmey encampment, No. 3, held one of the star evenings of the fall season on Thursday night at Odd Fellows' hall, when they had one candidate to put through the third degree in the form under the direction of Degree Master E. H. Worthington, following which was a turkey supper. The special features called out an attendance of about 45 members, who were also entertained by the report of D. D. G. P. Ashley T. Boun, who attended the grand encampment in New Haven this week.

C. P. Edward W. Kinney presided at the Falmey meeting, at which there were two visitors from Lacombe, N. H. After the business was out of the way the brothers were all invited to the banquet hall, where Frank M. Green and Harold T. Sargent had the toothsome spread laid out. On the menu were warm roast turkey, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, celery, rolls, coffee, cider and cigars, and all disappeared like magic before the appreciative Falmey men. The evening was a great success, and enthusiastic thanks were bestowed upon Brothers Green and Sargent for their good work as the supper committee.

Shubert lodge, No. 27, had an interesting meeting Tuesday evening at the lodge rooms, concluding with refreshments.

Sargent presented his resignation from the office and A. G. Gule was elected for the balance of the term.

L'UNION ST. JEAN BAPTISTE D'AMERIQUE.

Lafayette council, No. 267, opened its social season with a very successful evening of whist Thursday in Foresters' hall, when 25 tables played and all present had every minute enjoyably filled. The following were the prizes awarded: First—Edward Brothers, an umbrella; Mrs. Sabourin, an ice cream spoon. Second—Dr. Alfred Richards, a pair of suspenders and a watch; Mrs. Marie Lanoie, a purse. Consolations—Constable Jerry Raveland, a pair of suspenders and a watch; Mrs. Alfred Richards, a mustard spoon.

The evening concluded with a short entertainment that was very pleasing, consisting of songs by Willie Concan, Miss Josephine Sabourin, and the chorists of the society, Mrs. Joseph P. Brunelle was the accompanist. Ice cream and cake were served.

HEPTASOPHS.

Norwich council, No. 424, with Archon John B. Deput, presiding, held its regular meeting in the hall in the Austin building on Monday evening.

There was one candidate to initiate, a man who had formerly belonged to the order in Meriden. Dan Williams has now been appointed local organizer, to take the vacancy made when Henry J. Grodzitzke went west. The new officer is well acquainted with the merits of the order and should prove the right man in the right place.

UNITED WORKMEN.

Master Workman C. W. Worthington presided Wednesday evening at the regular meeting of Norwich lodge, No. 12, in Germania hall. The principal business was the report given by him of the grand lodge meeting at Meriden on Thursday, October 21. He showed that this was most harmonious and that the order was making satisfactory records in finances and membership in Connecticut.

ROYAL ARCANUM.

Thames council, No. 1851, had a visit from its deputy, Mr. Threlk of New Haven, at its meeting Wednesday evening in Foresters' hall. Regent George

S. Powers welcomed the visiting officer, who was heard in a pleasant address upon the progress of the order. He urged Thames members to show some interest in candidates for initiation in the coming months.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS.

The Neosha club held one of their home nights on Wednesday afternoon and evening with Mr. and Mrs. Culver. A fine supper was served. In the evening whist was played with seven tables. Prizes were won as follows: First lady, Mary Mueller, fancy glass dish, 45c; second, Grace Thorpe, sugar shell, 35c; first gentleman, William Black, burdock necktie, 45c; second, once Smith, whiskbroom, 40c; consolation, Agnes Beckman and Anna Clabby.

The next will be held on Friday afternoon and evening, Nov. 19, with Mrs. Grace Thorpe, 234 Broad street. The club will hold a whist on Nov. 3 in Foresters' hall.

REBEKAHS.

Members of Hope lodge, No. 21, enjoyed a delightful social afternoon and evening last Wednesday at the home of the recording secretary, Mrs. Ada Revell, No. 58 Baltic street. Shortly after 6 o'clock supper was served with a menu that comprised chowder and the usual dainties. There were from 40 to 50 present during the evening, and the supper arrangements were in the hands of a capable committee, consisting of Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. Mattie Parsons, and Mrs. Lena R. Christman. Songs and games were on the programme for the latter part of the evening after supper.

Next Wednesday the Thames Past Grand's association meets with Hope lodge in this city in the afternoon at Odd Fellows' hall, and in the evening the regular lodge meeting is held.

ORDER OF PROTECTION.

What promises to be a novel but thoroughly enjoyable evening for Thames lodge, No. 326, is arranged for the meeting night on next Tuesday in Foresters' hall, when a "children's night" is to be given for the families included in the membership. Just a jolly good time is promised for all the children, while the elders can get their enjoyment by helping on the fun or watching the youngsters frolic. Visitors from New Haven are expected, including Grand Secretary Jeremiah Wall, and there will also be a number from New London, including Deputy William Kingston and members of Beulah lodge.

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.

There was a well attended meeting of Norwich grange, No. 172, Wednesday evening in Pythian hall, at which worthy Master W. O. Rogers presided, and the principal time of the meeting was taken up with the lecturer's hour. This was of special interest. One very instructive part was the asking of questions to which practical answers were given by Conrad Greiner. A discussion of the insect pest on apple trees was carried on, and Lecturer Allen Latham spoke of the insect enemies of the insect pests. A good report of the New London County Pomona grange meeting at Ledyard last week was given by worthy Master Rogers.

GRAND ARMY.

There was a brief meeting of Sedgewick post, No. 1, at the Buckingham Memorial Friday evening, which adjourned after disposing of routine business. Several applications for membership in the Citizens' corps were received.

DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY.

Thursday evening Virginia Dare council, No. 25, held its first meeting in its new council quarters at No. 54 Washington street, since moving from Hibernian hall. The new place was found to be very convenient and well fitted for the council's use. It is thought that it may be advisable to change the meeting night to Friday instead of Thursday, and this will probably be decided at the next meeting.

AMERICAN MECHANICS.

Ladies' night conducted by Man-tonome council, No. 39, on Friday evening in Pythian hall was made a most successful affair through the efforts of the committee in charge in having present State Councilor Thomas F. Cook of Hartford, State Vice-Councilor G. W. Gammon of Manchester and Deputy M. L. Gilman of Manchester. The council hall was well filled at the opening hour with the members and their lady friends, including also the members of Virginia Dare council, No. 25, Daughters of Liberty, who were specially invited.

Councillor Joseph Austin presided, announcing for the opening number the hymn of the order, America, which all united in singing. He then expressed a cordial welcome to the three visiting officers, who were all heard in response, speaking upon the patriotic principles and purposes of the Order of United American Mechanics, and presenting encouraging figures of its growth. They were enthusiastically applauded.

The Star Spangled Banner was sung in pleasing form by Miss Elizabeth Smith, following which Past State Councilor Ashley T. Boun made an interesting address.

Supper was served in the banquet hall under the direction of the committee, consisting of S. C. Culver, Frank Q. Smith, Frank S. Smith, James Fitch, Samuel Austin and Joseph D. Austin.

Supper was followed by an hour of whist, in which the following prize awards were made: First—Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, 27, a cup and saucer; Deputy Gilman, 27, an ash tray. Second, Mrs. Ada Revell, 19, a cup and saucer; Frank S. Smith, 25, an ash tray.

Surrounding Towns

Rockville.—M. C. Mason, purchasing agent for the Hockanum Mills company, was called to Carthage, N. Y., on Tuesday by the death of his father.

Mystic.—J. Henry Hill, who has been connected with the Standard Machinery company for the past 44 years, and has been foreman there a long time, has resigned.

Poquonoc.—It is probable that the Groton Driving association will hold one more race at the Groton driving park in Poquonoc. It is to be held on Thanksgiving day and will be the last of the season.

Stonington.—Charles S. Brightman of Stonington lodge, No. 20, A. O. U. W., the recently elected grand over-seer of the order in Connecticut, was given a reception at the regular meeting of the lodge Thursday evening and received many congratulations.
